CIRCULAR
December 22, 2005

DISCIPLINARY DECISION
MARC COLPRON

On October 13, 2005, following an investigation conducted by the Regulatory Division, Bourse de Montréal Inc. (the Bourse) lodged a complaint against Marc Colpron who was, when the reproached facts occurred, a person approved by the Bourse.

By way of an offer of settlement approved by the Special Committee – Regulatory Division, Marc Colpron has agreed to pay a fine of $5,000 and the costs of the investigation in the amount of $2,500. Furthermore, Mr. Colpron will have to complete the examination on The Conduct and Practices Handbook Course, no later than June 19, 2006.

Marc Colpron admitted having contravened paragraph 3 of article 7411 (now paragraph 3 of article 7412) and article 7476 of the Rules of the Bourse pertaining to discretionary accounts.

Articles 7412 and 7476 of the Rules of the Bourse prohibit a registered representative from executing a discretionary order or exercising any discretion in the handling of an account of a client of an approved participant, unless such client has given prior written authorization and the account has been accepted in writing by a duly designated partner or director of the approved participant.

During the month of June 1999, Marc Colpron had, on his own initiative, three (3) transactions executed in the account of a client, without the account having been accepted in writing as a discretionary account by a duly designated partner or director of the approved participant, and without the client's prior written authorization, as required by the Rules of the Bourse.

Marc Colpron has admitted the facts mentioned above. The client did not suffer any financial prejudice as a result of these three (3) transactions.

Circular no.: 194-2005

At the time of these violations, Marc Colpron was a registered representative of Laurentian Bank Securities Inc.

Following a review of the facts and circumstances revealed during the investigation, the Regulatory Division has concluded that there were no grounds for disciplinary action against Laurentian Bank Securities Inc.
